- 1. The initial settlement agreement provided that the check be made payable to both David O'Mara, Esq. and Thomas More Society.
- 2. Counsel for Defendants confirmed with Plaintiffs' counsel to whom the check should be issued.
- 3. Plaintiffs' counsel indicated that the check should issue to Thomas More Society.
- 4. Upon request of the check to be issued to Thomas More Society, Defendants' Accounting Department indicated that it could not issue a check contrary to the settlement agreement.
- 5. The settlement check is currently being processed. Upon its issuance, counsel for Defendants will Fed-Ex the settlement check overnight to Plaintiffs.
- 6. However, in light of the holidays and individuals absent from work, Defendants do not have a specific time period in which counsel will receive the check.
- 7. Additionally, Defendants will be issuing the agreed upon memorandum to administrators as part of the upcoming bulletin for administrators. It is counsel's understanding that will be accomplished by December 29, 2023 or sooner. Proof of the issuance will also be provided.
